

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 10, 2008
CONTACT: Kelly Young, 317.423.2990, kelly@baisecomunications.com

Actress Victoria Rowell to Visit Indianapolis June 4

Indianapolis – Victoria Rowell - dancer, actress, author, advocate, philanthropist and former foster child - will be in Indianapolis June 4 to share her story about growing up in foster care and how she overcame obstacles to achieve success. Rowell is best known for her roles on The Cosby Show, The Young and the Restless and Diagnosis Murder. She will share her experiences about growing up as a foster child, talk about the people in her life who helped her achieve success, and discuss the opportunities she sees in foster care and adoption today. An Evening with Victoria Rowell is sponsored by Prevent Child Abuse Indiana, a Division of The Villages.

What: An Evening with Victoria Rowell

When: Wednesday, June 4

Time: 5:30 p.m.: private reception
7 p.m.: An Evening with Victoria Rowell

Where: Sheraton Hotel, downtown, 31 W. Ohio St.

Cost: $30 General Admission
$15 for Members of Prevent Child Abuse Indiana
Additional $20 to attend the private reception. Space is limited.

Book signing: Victoria will sign her book "The Women Who Raised Me" after the event. Guests have the opportunity to purchase the book at the event.

Register: On-line registration is available at www.pcain.org or call 317.542.7002

Rowell has been honored with eleven NAACP Image Awards and is involved with numerous charities. In recognition of her contributions to education, her support of foster children and her work for human rights and world peace, Rowell received the United Nations Association Award. In addition, Rowell has been honored as a National Angel in Adoption by the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute.

As a Division of The Villages, Prevent Child Abuse Indiana serves as a catalyst for preventing child abuse in all its forms and thereby enhancing the quality of life for children and families in Indiana. By working with diverse national, state and local groups, and volunteers to facilitate child abuse prevention programs across the state, Prevent Child Abuse Indiana advocates for policies, programs and practices that value children and families. Prevent Child Abuse Indiana is the state's chartered member of Prevent Child Abuse America. For more information visit www.pcain.org or call 317.542.7002.

###